

Flower Wholesale Trade Association

ASSOCIATE MEMBER

The best wholesalers for the best flowers

Who is FWTA?

The Flower Wholesale Trade Association is the only dedicated trade association for the wholesale sector of the UK flower industry. Founded in 2005 it exists to bring together quality suppliers of both fresh flowers and florist sundries in order to help the sector grow and face the challenges of the future. All FWTA members are dedicated to offering the best possible quality product combined with the highest levels of customer service.

The Association works with both the Flower Import Trade Association and the British Florist Association to strengthen ties within the industry, promotes members via its' website www.fwta.co.uk and gives them a networking facility allowing them to share information and ideas.

Why be an Associate Member?

Becoming an Associate Member gives you access to a number of the UK's leading wholesalers who are all keen to raise standards of professionalism across the sector. Benefits of membership include a link from the FWTA website to your own and an invitation to one FWTA event per year to meet with members.

How much does it cost?

The cost is £500 per annum plus VAT.
